Messrs. Charlton and Wetherell are both old railroad men.

The BAZOO welcomes them to Sedalia and trusts their stay may be pleasant and profitable.

Memorial Day.

The committee on arrangements have secured Rev. Herron to deliver the Memorial Day oration. The exercises will be held at the cemetery in the afternoon. The procession will leave the post headquarters on Fifth street opposite the court house at 2 o'clock. The members of the G. A. R. will assemble at the post at 1 o'clock.

The ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet at the post hall Wednesday afternoon to make wreaths and bouquets.

If you suffer from any affection caused by impure blood, such as scrofula, salt rheum, sores, boils, pimples, tetter, ringworm, take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla.

MEMORIAL DAY.

"Who are the soldiers marching by?" my little one asked to-day, As we stood at the gate and watched the files—the files of the blue and gray—Blue in the uniforms they wear; Gray in the beard and gray in hair; The grand old veterans marching there.

They are some heroes, little one, who years and years ago Went forth at country's tocsin call, in youth's bright burst and glow, To nobly do and nobly dare, For right, in battle's brunt and glare; The grand old veterans marching there.

"Why are they marching now?" she asked —"this peaceful morn in May." They go to honor comrades' graves on this Memorial Day;

They take those flowers, fresh and fair, And scatter them with loving care, For some who once were marching there.

Now shining on each manly breast, the eagle and the star; And here and there a missing limb, and many a battle scar, Are signs that trenchantly declare, Just who those bending soldiers are— The grand old veterans marching there.

Long years ago, on many a field, where screening shot and shell, And all the combat's noises seemed an orchestra of hell; 'Mid clashing arms and battle's glare— Death-breasting in the choking air— Those grand old men were marching there.

They marched, and fought, and groaned, and sung, and saved the Nation's life; War bowed to them his sable plume, and ended was the strife; Now soon beyond the golden stair, With victor's palms, and honors rare, These veterans will be marching there.

WILL L. VISSCHER.

A SHOCKING DEATH.

A Well Known Farmer of Boone County Kicked to Death.

The body of John E. Smith, a wealthy farmer of Boone county, was found a few days ago lying in a ravine near his home horribly mangled. At first it was supposed that his throat had been cut and his person robbed, but his money, watch and valuables were found undisturbed, and on closer examination of the wounds, the authorities became satisfied that he had been kicked to death by his horse which was tied to a tree within a few feet of where his body was found. Smith left home two days before to take a couple of horses to a man in Calloway county, and not returning at the time he should, a search was instituted which resulted in finding his body as stated. He had alighted for some purpose and tied the animal he was riding, to a tree. The first kick evidently killed or disabled him and the horse continued to kick until the body rolled out of reach.

Real Estate Auction.

A number of pieces of property were sold at auction at the court house yesterday by Morey & Crawford and Porter VanKiper and Huffman. The sales were absolute and the prices obtained represent the forced sale value not what it is fairly worth under ordinary circumstances.

The Texas House Nos. 1204 and 1206 East Third street, sold to Margaret Cullman for $1410.

Lot 6 in block 2 of Westenberg's subdivision with two small frame houses, corner of Sixth and Wagner streets, sold to A. Imhauser for $501.

Three houses and lots on West Fourth street sold as follows:

No. 621 to Henry D. Hill for $1025.

No. 523 to Geo. Monroe for $1000.

No. 625 to Fred Ludeman.

Two vacant lots on south side of Broadway second block east of railroad, sold to Clark Ritchie for $500.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult' Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Mertz & Hale's Drug Store.

The Show Last Night.

The lady minstrels drew a full house last night and the performance was fairly good—in many particulars superior to anything of the kind that has ever appeared before a Sedalia audience. It was a noticeable fact that every person entering the room cast his eyes toward the front seats, expecting to see them occupied by the bald-headed gentlemen of the city. They were disappointed. Not one could be seen. Some had their hair cut tolerably close, it is true—in fact, a few crowns stuck up through the hair, but this is the time of year to wear the hair short.

Excursion.

The Cumberland Presbyterian church will give an excursion Friday, May 31, to the great artesian well at Clinton, Mo. As is well known the wonderful well is 800 feet deep and flows 800 gallons each minute and the opportunity to visit it should be embraced by everybody. The round trip will cost $1.00, children under 10 years of age 50 cents. The train leaves Sedalia at 9 o'clock a. m. and returns to Sedalia at 8 o'clock p. m.

I have fine pasture, plenty of grass, shade and running water. Apply to 5-28w6t J. D. CLAYCOMB, Thornleigh, Pettis Co., Mo.

DID IT ELECT HARRISON?

The following appeared in a Minnesota paper: "Members of the Democratic party have been using all subterfuges to account for their overwhelming defeat, and numerous are the causes alleged.

"I was talking with several of the vanquished on Fourth street the other day, opposite a bill board, and one of the party exclaimed: 'If it had not been for the closeness of the national committee in the expenditure of money, we would have elected our man. The republicans advertised their man like a circus.' Several of the party remarked that no advertising was done except small announcements in the papers, and a few 'hangers' on the dead walls.

"Hangers?" said our informant. "What do you call that but a circus poster?" pointing to a twelve-sheet medicine poster on the bill board, bearing the cuts of Gen. Harrison and his grandfather.

"If the democrats had advertised like that, Cleveland would have been re-elected."

The poster referred to was one of the familiar black and white Log Cabin Sarsaparilla posters sent out by an enterprising firm engaged in the manufacture of old log-cabin home-cures, under the name of Warner's Log Cabin Remedies, and among other equally valuable articles includes the famous Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, which is everywhere recognized as the best of all spring medicines and stands without a rival for the cure of all disorders which are the results of impure blood.

The spring time of the year is the season when the system needs renovation; the long winter has caused the blood to become filled with impurities.

There exists no better means to aid and strengthen the system at such an urgent period than the use of Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, which speedily restores the blood to a pure and healthy state, which insures health and happiness.

The reputation of the firm putting out the medicine is above reproach, and is the same firm which manufactures Warner's Sate Cure the standard remedy for the cure of all those diseases peculiar to the kidneys as well as those which are the results of disease in those organs, and which has met with such phenomenal success for the past ten years.

We understand that the posters referred to make their appearance in many parts of the country sometimes prior to the Chicago convention which nominated Gen Harrison as a candidate for the presidency—hence the use made of the portraits of the Harrisons, father and grandson—was either the result of remarkable political foresight or in accordance with the historical association of the old Log Cabin with the name of Harrison.

WARNER'S Safe Cure removes defective vision or sight. Why? Because it gets rid of the poisonous kidney acid circulating in the blood. Impaired vision is caused by advanced kidney disease, another name for Bright's disease, which "has no symptoms of its own." Warner's Safe Cure removes the cause, when normal vision returns.

Banquets Last Night.

The visiting Elks were also banquered at Siche & Doyle's. They were, of course, given a fine lay-out, and to which they did ample justice.
